GIVES YOU

The Bomber

“SUCCESS”

FOREWARD

To the crew

If by some sad stroke of the Fates we were bereft of all we possess of worldly goods, we would still be rich indeed if kind providence spared us the recollection of all that sea of kind faces that passes us somewhere in the Vale of Yesterday.

OUR SCHOOL

Due to the condition of the old school building our present building was erected in 1927. There have been seventeen graduating classes from this school since then. We students feel that our Alma Mater is the best school around.

We seniors have done well in our efforts to keep it that way and we are sure all the others will follow our example.

PILOTS

OUR FACULTY

The time has come for we Seniors to pay tribute to those teachers who have been so loyal and faithful to us. Probably we do not realize what they have done for us, but in future years we will. When this time comes we will not be in school to thank them so we are taking this opportunity to do so.

BOARD OF EDUCATION

Willis King, Pres. P. F. Sidle, Vice President
Marvin Cowan, Clerk Tschannen Marbaugh
Dean Switzer

Due to the cooperative spirit of our Board of Education, we seniors feel that our school years have been a success. The opportunity has never been given to us to let them know how much we appreciate their help. All we can do now is to dedicate this small space to them in hope that in years to come our success will reward them for their efforts.

LOCAL SUPERINTENDENT

Mr. Delbert M. Dolphin

Mr. Dolphin has served as a successful administrator in our school for two and one-half years.

We, the Senior Class, take this opportunity to thank Mr. Dolphin for his guidance in our education and his splendid cooperation in our many activities.

No doubt until such time as we experience the same trials we will lack genuine appreciation for what you have done for us, but for the time we say, "Thank you."

In addition to his administrative duties he has served as teacher and coach. His career as a teacher has been in the fields of science and physical education.

Before Mr. Dolphin joined our staff he was a teacher in Highland County, Mercer County, and Van Wert County. He was serving as superintendent of the Lena-Conover Schools in Highland County at the time he took over the administrative duties here.

He took his college work at Wilmington College, University of Cincinnati, and Ohio State University; and from the latter he received his Masters Degree.

SENIOR CLASS HISTORY

On September 12, 1941 thirty-five green freshmen staggered aboard the bomber, "Success". Our pilot, Miss Jane Lusk, steered us until May 1942. The other members of the crew were Anna Mary Emerick, president; Don Hurless, vice president; Phyllis Galloway, secretary; Robert Gamble, treasurer; and Evelyn Collins, news reporter. We glided along smoothly until midyear when we hit an air pocket which left most of us rather shaken. Donald Keslar landed to recover from air sickness and we had two members to transfer to different planes, Jean Sutton and Max Mercer. In the spring we decided to land for a skating party at Celina. Soon after that we had motor trouble and were forced to land for repairs which took about three months.

After repairs were completed, we took to the air again with thirty-two members remaining and Mr. Robert Rutter as our pilot. We had rough going and lost seven members. Two of them, Ruby Billieu and Robert Cassel, being dissatisfied with our plane transferred to the ship, Van Wert. While flying over the sea of matrimony, Ola Mae Frye bailed out to become Mrs. Victor Carr. Uncle Sam beckoned to another of our members, Bill Heppard and he changed from flying to sailing. We found it necessary at this time to land for refueling and minor repairs.

We left the runway for the third time with twenty-three members and Mr. Rutter as our Commanding Officer and we chose as his aids Robert Gamble, Don Hurless; Anna Mary Emerick and Marilyn Morgan. After fulfilling all requirements, we received our class rings as our insignia. We landed in January to give our Junior class play, "The Life of Riley", and during that time we followed the tradition of other classes and made our class flag. After a very short flight, we landed in May to entertain the Senior Class with a banquet. We remained for a much needed vacation.

After losing another member of our crew, Delbert Amweg, we took flight for the last time. This time we chose as our Commanding Officer, Miss Benson, and her aids, George Wise, Glenn Mosier, Jeannette Kelly, Donna Brown, and Phyllis Galloway. It was Unanimously decided to publish an O'Citian. To raise the money we had concessions at several basketball games and also served at the tournament. We sponsored a rummage sale and gave the Senior Class Play, "Meet My Wives", which proved to be a great success. We climaxed the year by being entertained by the Juniors at the Junior-Senior reception.

SENIOR CLASS POEM

As we view the names on our Senior Roll,
We take them alphabetically so we won't miss a soul.

"Bennie" Benson is our sponsor gay
We can't eat popcorn unless we pay.
She goes to ball games to calm her nerves,
And as a scorekeeper she really does serve.

Next victim that we wish to run down
Is a quiet person with the name, "Doc" Brown.
The Gov't is having to work a lot
To repair the roads between here and Scott.

There is a lot of action around the school house
When running loose is "Genie" Clouse.
If you see him with his hair in curls,
You know he's flirting with the girls.

Way after the tardy bell, in comes "Dag",
He'd been here sooner but he hit a "snag".
Darwood's known as our "Harry James"
And boy, does he make a hit with the dames.

"Jack of all trades; master of none,"
Here comes Bob Gamble with his fun.
Beating the drums is his main hobby
If you want to dance, just call on "Bobby."

"Simp" Hertel with his wonderful physique
Is a fellow who seems so very meek.
We rather doubt if he'll ever marry
But he knows every word in the dictionary.

"Gav" Hoffman who is quite a man
In the midst of a group of girls every noon he stands.
Around town you often see him quirk
He is on his way to see Donna Handwerk.

"Squirt" Hurless is just a little mite.
Yet he goes to see Billie nearly every night.
On the basketball floor he really gets around
And in the classroom just listen to the sound.

"Lefty" or "Glomer" is the same man
That little Plymouth he really does can.
It's Glen Mosier as you've already guessed
Who likes fudgicles and popcorn best.

"Joe" Schaadt who was Navy bound
Decided he would rather stay in town.
Now, if it's Gerald you wish to see
He's probably in June's company.

If at school you hear him groan
He's been out too late, what a moan, what a moan.
If you haven't guessed, it's Robert Shaw
He does everything according to law?????

"Bony" Taylor by electricity was hit
For the Senior Class he does his bit.
That's all right, Ralph, You're doing fine
You may be six feet before you're 29.

Our class president, "Porky" Wise
Is running a race with "Mr. Five-by-Five."
In History Class he is a wit
Hold your sides folks or you will split.

"Dona" Brown's our competent one,
The typewriter she can really run.
A bashful one in the masculine direction
She doesn't need anyone for her protection.

"Elsie" Collins is our class canary
Around the boys she is always merry.
To some classes she brings a lunch
And usually shares it with the rest of the bunch.

"Mimi" Emerick is a reliable one
Paulgene's heart she has really won.
In her dressing she is neat
The belts she makes are hard to beat.

"Janie" Galloway is a pretty belle.
If the boys molest her, she will yell.
This year she was the Carnival Queen
She's the answer to every man's dream.

"Clarisse" Kelly gives the Marines her attention
And there's one Marine who gives her protection.
She's proud of him; he's proud of her
And we all know "Chuck" is not her brother.

"Lucy" Kline is known for her knack at shorthand
As the life-of-the-party she's really grand.
She is not too tall yet mighty sweet,
Her career as a nurse will be hard to beat.

"Bill" Kohn is an active one
She's sure to keep "Donnie" on the run,
She is noted for her basketball
Although she isn't very tall.

"Dottie" Ledyard's shy—a wee bit
Although at times you wouldn't notice it.
Some call her "Jeannie" with the light brown hair"
And of this town her father is Mayor.

"Gindy" Morgan is a witty lass
She does her best in every class.
Ervin thinks she's quite all right,
He comes to see her night after night.

The last on the list is "Floozy Ann."
She's on the trail of a good looking man.
Phyllis Switzer is very athletic
If she isn't an "all star" it will be pathetic.

LAST WILL and TESTAMENT OF THE CLASS OF '45

We, the members of the Senior Class of the Ohio City-Liberty High School in the year of our Lord Nineteen hundred forty-five, having received our dismissal from the group of uneducated, in full possession of over-loaded brains, wandering memories, and super-human perception, do submit and publish this, our last will and testament, hereby abolishing all agreements, both written and verbal, that we made heretofore.

As to such estate as our weak minds and strong backs have procured for us, we do hereby dispose of the same as follows:

To the Juniors, we leave our well-worn assembly seats and the privilege of leading the recessional.

To the Sophomores, we leave our much-loved democracy books and all the notes we have written in the rosy past.

To the inexperienced Freshies who can only guess what lies ahead, we leave our fudgicle sticks and popcorn bullets.

The following personal items are to be disposed of as follows:

I, Karl Brown, will my dilapidated ford to anyone who wishes to woo a girl in Scott.

I, Donna Brown, will my ability to keep quiet in class to June Agler. My typing ability I gladly will to Betty Bolenbaugh.

I, Paulgene Clouse, will my ability to make clever remarks in American History class to Eddie Wittung.

I, Evelyn Collins, will my soprano voice to Ned Krugh, but wish to keep my love for the boys.

I, Arthur Darwood, will my ability to play trumpet to Dorothy Jean Rice and my position as chauffeur to Bob Gamble to anyone who has enough gas.

I, Anna Mary Emerick, will my position as Editor-in-chief to Moby Putman, but I wish to keep Genie for myself.

I, Phyllis Galloway, will my ability to dance to Betty Mottinger who has great possibilities as a jitterbug contestant and to Jane Ann Stemen I will my ability to play the piano.

I, Bob Gamble, will my photographic ability to Roger Morgan, but I wish to keep my cookie-duster for my own use.

I, Don Hertel, will my ingenious ability and my manly physique to "Poke" Miller. I wish to return my love for grammar to Mrs. Johnson.

I, Gaylord Hoffman, will my position on the paper salvage committee to anyone who wishes to have their nose in other peoples business all the time.

I, Donald Hurless, will my excessive height to Lynn Brown, but wish to keep a certain spot on Carmean Street for myself.

I, Jeanette Kelly, will my salesmanship record to Donna Handwerk and my ability to play baritone to Dick Spenny.

I, Joan Kline, will my green polo coat to "Footy" Wiseman and my gloves and scarf to Jane Sidle. Since you like locker No. 136 so well you may divide it equally.

I, Billie Kohn, will my ability to play basketball to Mary Mottinger, but listen girls, I'll put up a big fight for "Squirt".

I, Jean Ledyard, will my membership in the "Stinky Club" to anyone who learns the club greeting.

I, Marilyn Morgan, will my teaching ability to "Biddie Bolenbaugh and you can also have a couple inches of my height so you can see over the desk.

I, Glenn Mosier, would like to will my cherished corduroy hat to Tommy Tucker.

I, Gerald Schaadt, will my seat in Bookkeeping II at the back table with three girls to "Screwy" Brubaker.

I, Bob Shaw, will my ability to dissect snakes in biology lab., to "Pood" Emerick.

I, Phyllis Switzer, will my ability to turn kips to Jack High and my cheerleading ability to Helaine Foley.

I, Ralph Taylor, will my nick-name "Boney" to Leo Ellinger and I hope he'll not renounce its meaning.

I, George Wise, will my ability to imitate Frankie Sinatra and my pleasing plumpness to Bud Prichard.

In Witness Whereof, we, The Senior Class, the testators, have set our hands and seal hereto this eighteenth day of May in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and forty-five (1945).

THE SENIOR CLASS (Seal)

Signed, sealed, published and declared as and for our last will, and testament by The Senior Class, the above-named testators, in the presence of us, who, at their request and in the presence of them and of each other, have subscribed our names hereto as witnesses on the day and year last aforesaid.

Witnesses:

Elbert M. Delphin

GRUMBLER

Bright and early every morning, five days a week, a run-down patrol wagon picks up all the country students and they head for school. After pushing the bus out of the ditch 3 or 4 times they arrive at the building where each must hurriedly take off his coat and hat, grab his books and run into his home room quickly so he doesn't clutter up the hall. The "town kid" is lucky: he gets to walk to school and is always sure that he will get there, but heaven knows when.

There are disadvantages to living in town, too. You eat your breakfast and finish dressing on the way to school so that you'll be ready to tear into your home room and study.

At nine o'clock the bell jingles and we must go to our first period class. We used to have three minutes to get there, now we don't know how long we have. If you get to class and the door is closed you must get an excuse so that you will get into class in time to get the staggering assignment for the next day. Then, if you don't get sent to the office for unsubordination, you will have the great privilege of sitting like a poker for an eternity of forty-five minutes and hear about (pre-historic) happenings such as the War of 1812, the inauguration of Abe Lincoln, etc.

While enroute to the next class you have to dodge underclassmen or they would run over you. You would think they would have a little respect for Seniors. If you don't have a study period then you have advanced math. The biggest part of this class is an argument between Professors Wise and Mosier about their advanced theories. If by chance you have a study period and want to catch up on some sleep, you had better think again. Mrs. Johnson comes along, pecks you on the shoulder, and says ever so sweetly, "Do you have some work to do?"

After keeping your eyes open at just the right times you pull through a dull period. There goes that confounded bell again—time for round three. If you have physics class it isn't quite so nerve-wrecking, but pity the poor dopes who have typing, shorthand, or work of any kind in the commercial room. With Lady Luck's help you get to do some ditto or mimeograph machine work, but sometimes Fate takes a hand and you have to work. The first thing Miss Benson says is, "Hurry up, there, you're wasting time." "Now get ready for a time test!!!" She says "test" but before the period is over you've taken three or four and you are way behind in your typing workbook.

Oh, dear! You lingered too long in that last class. You will have to run to get to Biology or Teacher Tucker will give a sermon. Well rush, rush,—you get there on time. Some of us have that simply ~~dee-vine~~ pastime, physics lab. Once in a while you don't have a test and decide to do an easy experiment only to spend the rest of the period hunting apparatus which, when you find it, looks as if it had gone through a cyclone. After setting up the delapidated equipment, you start your experiment only to be surrounded by fiendish gremlins with long fingers, who love to pour salt in the transformer, touch you with lyder jars, or pour a tube full of water down your neck. Oh, Happy Day! After all this slow torture the noon bell rings and those who brought their lunches settle down to forty-five minutes of munching and gossiping. Those who feel that they must have a hot lunch rush down to the cafeteria (if some patrolman doesn't make them start over again and walk downstairs) and you stand in line thirty minutes to get something to eat.

If you are a senior and it is your turn to sell fudgicles, you have to either swallow your dinner whole or eat a lunch of fudgicles so you can hurry down to be trampled on by a stampeding mob who buy them and throw their sticks and papers on the floor so we poor seniors can break our backs picking them up. We always have to make sure that our precious wares are well padlocked under the incline before we can make a mad dash to get our attendance checked. (There's nothing wrong with our attendance). Oh, those beautiful chimes: Is it any wonder you have a throbbing headache? We have one consolation, the day is half over and done with. We have it pretty easy the 5th period because it is the so-called "activity-period". What do they mean, "Activity"? Most of us have to sit in study hall and listen to the band burst forth with "Success." They have been playing that song ever since the schoolhouse was built. With loud fan-fare the fifth period is at a close and the bell rings with a high crescendo.

You have either study hall or bookkeeping the sixth period and if you want to grab the bookkeeping "first-aid" book you'll have to be quicker than Gerald Schaadt because he usually has it. This period passes quickly and before you know it the clock says 2:15 and you have to get your locker key and gym clothes for physical education. Rev. Tucker allows the softies to play ping-pong if they can find a ball. (The smart thing to do is to hide one.) Miss Benson is pretty tough on the girls though, they have to play basketball the whole year round. It has been rumored that some day we'll get to play volleyball.

George Wise, who just had to take a shower, comes in late to literature class and sneaks to his seat in the back row. Jeanette Kelly starts babbling some simple thing to George and the only thing he can say is, "What?" Of course, Mrs. Johnson hears that and — Oh, well, he'd rather sit in the front row anyhow. Finally everybody gets settled and Mrs. J. begins reading a poem. She always stops in the middle of it and says, "What do you think the author meant by the lines ———." She goes on like that all period. About once a week we have to learn a few lines of a poem; such as "Thanatopsis," or summarize a short story, essay, or novel. Every time we read a story we have to learn every little detail of the author's life because, as Mrs. J. says, "We do have six-weeks' tests you know, and you never can tell what will be in them." Yes, alas and alack, we do know there are six-weeks' tests, but does she have to give one every week!!! If we are given a chance, we sit and dream, glancing at the clock occasionally. Well, bless me, if it isn't 3:45 and we can go home.

Exhausted by a grueling day the country lads and lassies climb into the buses and the "town kids" plod along home. Everyone is loaded down by a huge arm-load of books which he will laboriously pursue late into the night.

200 YEAR OLD DOCU- MENT FOUND In RUINS

OHIO CITY, Jan. 6, 2165—(AP)—An interesting document was found today in the ruins of an ancient school building. This document gives us the life history of each member of a class that graduated from that school in the year 1945. It was written by an eminent historian of that period, Gaylord Hoffman, who was a member of that class. Although the document was in pretty bad condition after being buried so many years, parts of it can be read.

This was its content:
"I, Gaylord Hoffman, being a historian and the last living member of the class of 1945, in this year 2025, have decided to write down for posterity what happened to my fellow classmates after our graduation.

Jeanette Kelly, Joan Kline, and Billie Kohn, led very successful lives as nurses. Jeanette Kelly was made superintendent of the Van Wert County Hospital, where Joan Kline was head nurse, and Billie Kohn was X-Ray technician.

Don Hertel was a great scientist, making several startling discoveries during his lifetime. His most famous was his process for extracting electricity from old apple cores.

Art Darwood, Gerald Schaadt, and Glen Mosier, did a great service for the youth of their country by founding Ohio City University (OCU) with Donald Hurless, and Phyllis Galloway as heads of the technical training department, Anna Mary Emerick and Donna Brown in the commercial department, George Wise as athletic director, and Evelyn Collins as head of the music department.

Bob Gamble became known by many as the manager of a large chain of theaters scattered throughout the area in the towns of Ohio City, Willshire, Rockford, Wren, Dulltown, and Bobo.

Paulgene Clouse was promoted to admiral of the Pacific Fleet, while Bob Shaw was made vice admiral of the Atlantic Fleet.

Phyllis Switzer, Marilyn Morgan and Jean Ledyard chose to be career girls and organized the Switzer-Morgan-Ledyard Co. Inc., dealing in popcorn and fudgicles.

Karl Brown gained world wide recognition as the raiser of the world's largest corn crops, on a small farm on the outskirts of Ohio City.

Ralph Taylor at the time of his death was president of the Ohio City branch of the Kennedy Kit Company."
